Boat trip, 12 names so far and money needed tonight.

The next meeting is on 21st September. The speaker is John Sween who will talk about 'Five boys and a pasty'

A few committee members dressed up in centenary costumes. Virginia Wade, Mary Peters, 2 Land Girls and Margaret Thatcher turned up.

Sue then closed the meeting and the festivities began.

It was a lovely evening so we all stayed out on the Terrace. Members had brought a wide variety of savoury and sweet to tempt our appetites.

Afterwards, a few members tried their hand at boules whilst others watched and chatted.

An excellent evening.
