

WHO DOESN'T LOVE STRICTLY?

The Board are planning a weekend in London from 11 – 13 September 2026, with a tour to DSI, the company who design and make the gowns and dresses for the Strictly show and for other professional dancers, theatre productions and period dramas.

Also

Queen Elizabeth II: Her Life In Style

A visit to Buckingham Place to see a new exhibition for 2026 and discover the remarkable style of Britain's longest-reigning monarch through clothing, jewellery, hats, shoes and accessories worn in all ten decades of her life - from birth to adulthood, from princess to queen, from off-duty style to dressing for the global stage for momentous occasions in Britain's history, featuring approximately 200 items, many on display for the first time.

You will have free time on the Friday and Saturday after the visits to book a show or just spend the evening having a leisurely meal with a few G&Ts and chat with your friends.

The Board will have further details with a flyer in the January newsletter.